Westbeth MusicWorks (WMW) is a coalition of musicians led by vocalist/composer/educator Eve Zanni. (WMW) is committed to sharing the creativity of Westbeth musicians and artists of all disciplines and providing creative opportunities to the wider community. They are proud to present the 7th Annual Music Festival, a celebration of creativity led by Westbeth artists. This year also features a brand new initiative: The Westbeth Kids’ Groove in a day of music for and by young people.

On Westbeth after Sandy... Westbeth, on the far westside of Manhattan, is home to a diverse group of artists representing a broad spectrum of genres and aesthetics. On October 29th 2012, Sandy flooded the basement spaces, destroying irreplaceable art, music equipment and livelihoods. The spirit of Greenwich Villages flourishes at Westbeth.
