

WESTZINE

"WESTZINE" INAUGURAL ISSUE OPEN CALL

The Westbeth Gallery is launching a quarterly zine and is now looking for contributors.

The quarterly mini magazine will center on Westbeth gallery activities and bridge with NYC artists communities to generate outside interest. About 200 issues will be printed each quarter and distributed in the neighborhood's relevant cultural institutions and centers.

If you are a poet, arts critic, photographer or visual artist, please send an inquiry email to Aaron Jackson at a.g.jackson128@gmail.com and gallery director Valérie Hallier at westbethgallery@gmail.com.

If you can attend March 6th opening of "Women on the Verge", a group show curated by Kathy Brew at Westbeth gallery, you will have a chance to meet the gallery director, as well as some of the artists who YOU can profile in the first issue of the zine.

Please RSVP to a.g.jackson128@gmail.com with the subject "Women on the Verge RSVP" if you plan to attend the show's March 6th opening.

All contributions must be submitted no later than March 27th.

Below is a list of what you might submit along with your inquiry email:

1. A paragraph-long bio.
2. Three short creative writing samples and/or 3 links to published examples of your exhibition reviews or art criticism;
3. Three original graphic artworks, or one video (two minutes max).
